7. Tindals and boatmen not to carry on the business of a hawker.—Tindals and boatmen are forbidden to carry on the business of a hawker.

8. No person to keep or let for hire any boat without a license and without being numbered.—No person shall keep or let for hire any boat without having a license in force for the same and without having the registration number allotted to it painted or branded on such parts of the said boat and in such manner as the registering authority may direct.

9. Mechanically propelled vessels not allowed to ply from certain landing places.—No mechanically-propelled vessel shall be allowed to ply for hire from any of the landing places mentioned in items (1), (3), (5), (7) and (8) of rule 3 and no license shall be issued for the purpose.

10. Notice to be given of change of residence.—Every licensee shall give notice of any change in the place of his residence as entered in the license to the Deputy Conservator in writing.

11. Licenses when and by whom to be issued.—Licenses for keeping or letting for hire of any boat shall be valid for one year unless suspended or revoked earlier, in accordance with the provisions of rule 15 and may usually be granted on the 1st of January in each year by the Deputy Conservator on application.

12. When Deputy Conservator may refuse to grant license.—The Deputy Conservator may in his discretion refuse to grant any such license for any boat which he may consider to be unfit for the conveyance of the public or to any applicant whom he may consider, on account of age, bad character, or for any other reason, unfit to be entrusted with the same.

13. Fees for license.—For any license granted under rule 11 there shall be levied a fee in accordance with the class of license granted, as shown in the following scale:—

Scale of Fees to be levied on granting a license		Rs. nP.
Mechanically propelled vessels	..	15.00
Bunder Boats, etc.	..	2.00
Jolly Boats, Dingies, Mutchwas, Prows, etc.	..	1.00
Tonies, Hodies, Pagars, Sumbooks, etc.	..	0.50
Duplicate license	..	Half the above fees.

14. Licenses to be renewed annually.—The Deputy Conservator shall, as soon as possible after the 1st day of January in each year, renew the licenses on payment of the prescribed fee by the licensees. While renewing the license, it shall be open to the Deputy Conservator to alter or reduce the number of the landing places from which the boat is licensed to ply:

Provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent the Deputy Conservator from refusing absolutely to renew the license of any boat which he may consider to be unfit, or the owner or licensee or other attendant of which he may consider for reasons to be recorded, unfit to be entrusted with such renewed license:

Provided further that the licensee or other attendant of a mechanically propelled vessel shall not, by reason of any license granted under these rules, ply such vessel for hire without a valid Certificate of Survey granted to such vessel under the provisions of the Inland Steam Vessels Act, 1917 (I of 1917).

15. Deputy Conservator may suspend or revoke licenses.—In the event of any licensed boat being at any time found unfit for the conveyance of the public or of the licensee or other attendant thereof appearing unfit to be entrusted with the charge of the same or of the boat being used for any purpose other than that for which the license is granted or in case of breach of any of the provisions of these rules, the Deputy Conservator may suspend or revoke the license after giving the licensee an opportunity to be heard.

16. Boats whose license has been suspended or revoked not to ply for hire until restoration or renewal of license.—The owner of any boat, the license of which has been suspended or revoked shall not permit the same to ply for hire before he shall have obtained a restoration or renewal of such license from the Deputy Conservator.

17. Suspended or revoked licenses to be returned to the Deputy Conservator.—Suspended or revoked licenses shall be returned to the Deputy Conservator within 24 hours of such suspension or revocation.

18. Deputy Conservator may issue duplicate licenses in certain cases.—On proof of a license having been lost or mislaid or the particulars written in such license having been accidentally obliterated or defaced, the Deputy Conservator may grant a duplicate license on payment of the fee prescribed in rule 13.

19. Licenses not transferable without the sanction of the Deputy Conservator endorsed thereon.—No license granted under these rules shall be transferable without the sanction of the Deputy Conservator endorsed thereon. Any transfer made without such sanction shall forthwith render the license null and void.

20. No person to use or authorise the use of a license, for a boat other than that for which it has been issued.—The Deputy Conservator shall keep a register containing full particulars of each boat as entered in the license thereof, and no person shall use or authorise the use of a license, for a boat other than that for which it has been issued, as apparent from the register.

21. Boats not to carry passengers in excess of the number licensed to carry.—(1) No licensee or other attendant of a boat shall carry or permit to be carried by the same more passengers than the number such boat is licensed to carry.

(2) The number of passengers and crew to be carried by any mechanically propelled vessel shall be in conformity with the number detailed in the Certificate of Survey granted in respect of such vessel under the Inland Steam Vessels Act, 1917.

22. Number of a boat to be open to public view.—No licensee or other attendant of a boat shall, in any manner or by any means, conceal or permit to be concealed from public view the number of the boat, nor shall he in any way attempt to prevent or obstruct any person from taking or noting the number of such boat.

23. Licensee not to permit persons in a boat without the consent of the hirers.—No licensee or other attendant of any boat, the whole of which has been hired or taken by one or more persons, shall permit or suffer any person to be carried in or upon such boat without the express consent of the person or persons hiring the same.

24. Licensee always to have with him license, etc. and to produce the same when demanded by hirer or passenger.—Every licensee or other attendant of a boat shall always have his license and rules and table of fares with him, and shall on demand produce the same for the information of any hirer of, or passenger by, such boat.

25. Rules and table of fares to be prepared in the office of the Deputy Conservator and issued to applicants on payment of price.—Rules and table of fares relating to boats shall be prepared in the office of the Deputy Conservator, and shall be issued to all applicants on payment of 50 nP. for each copy.

26. Licensee not to refuse to give way to any private boat or obstruct any public boat.—No licensee or other attendant of a boat shall refuse or neglect to give way, if he conveniently can, to any private boat nor shall he obstruct or hinder the licensee or other attendant of any other public boat in embarking or landing any persons from such boat.

27. Licensee to be sober and obedient to hirers and to keep his boat clean.—Every licensee or other attendant of any boat shall at all times during such employment be sober and shall obey the reasonable orders of the persons hiring or using his boat, and shall always, when plying for hire, keep the inside of his boat clean.

28. Licensee not to demand pre-payment of fare, or refuse to convey persons desirous of hiring, or refuse or delay to proceed with reasonable expedition or demand more than legal fare or anchor or lay off other than appointed pier or bunder.—No licensee or other attendant of any boat plying for hire shall demand prepayment of his fare, or refuse to convey any persons desirous of hiring his boat or refuse or delay to proceed with reasonable expedition or exact or demand for the hire thereof more than the regulated sum, or anchor at or lay off any other pier or bunder than that for which his license is granted:

Provided that the Deputy Conservator, where he so thinks fit, may, on application by the hirer of any such boat, allow the boat to anchor or lay off any pier or bunder other than the one for which the licence in respect of such boat has been granted.

29. Dispute between licensees and hirers to be referred to the officer in charge of the nearest Police Station.—In case of any dispute, the hirer of any boat may require the licensee or other attendant, and the licensee or other attendant may require the hirer, to proceed forthwith to the officer in charge of the nearest Police Station, who shall, if necessary refer the matter to a Magistrate for decision.

30. Licensee or other attendant bound to ply for hire when required by a Police Officer.—Every licensee or other attendant of any boat shall be bound, when required by a police officer to do so, to cause the same to ply for hire.

31. Property left in a boat to be deposited in the office of the Commissioner of Police and returned to the owner.—Property left in any boat shall be forthwith deposited by the licensee or other attendant in the office of the Commissioner of Police, to be returned to the person who shall prove to the Commissioner of Police that the same belonged to him, on payment of all expenses reasonably incurred.

32. Penalty for breach of rules.—Whoever commits a breach of any of the provisions of these rules shall on conviction by a Magistrate be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees under section 54 of the Indian Ports Act, 1908.
